

Kailua High School Instrument Loan Contract

This instrument loan contract covers all instruments that will be borrowed by the student for as long as you are borrowing the instrument. (Only one form needs to be filled out for the multiple instruments that a child might borrow for concert, pep, marching or jazz bands). *Please note that this form must be turned in to show that you are aware of our policies. Students are responsible for their instruments no matter what (i.e. If you lost a textbook from another class, you will still be responsible for paying for it even though you don't sign any contracts). This is a reminder.

1. Be responsible for care and maintenance of the instrument. The individual will pay for any damage done to the instrument due to neglect or intentional harm. Items such as cork grease, swabs, wiping cloths, or other maintenance items shall be kept in the case at all times. Students will responsible for regular maintenance of their assigned instruments. Monthly instrument checks will be implemented and detention will be assigned to individuals whose instruments are not up to the band director's satisfaction
2. Do not allow anyone not assigned to this instrument, including family members or other band members, to play the instrument. Damages incurred will be charged to the student who is assigned the instrument.
3. Instruments that are lost or stolen due to negligence will be charged to individual who is assigned the instrument.
